National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) is the ultimate OA Scouting experience. The 2012 NOAC, to be held at Michigan State University, will be one of the largest yet with over 8,000 Arrowmen in attendance.

NOAC will feature a number of unique events, including national competitions for ceremonies, drum, and dance. Other events will include evening shows, the OA history museum, and awesome gaming events. Highlights such as the Founder's Day Parade, the Grand Hodag, and the inter-Region dodge ball battle are some staples of the NOAC program.

Attending Arrowmen can partake in service projects, high adventure opportunities, leadership training, American Indian Activities training, and much more. While enjoying the various activities, Arrowmen will have a great time meeting new friends and sharing their experiences with people from around the nation.

NOAC is an inspiring meeting of Arrowmen from across the Nation. 8,000 strong, with one purpose and one mind...at NOAC, you can change the world.
